

BOARD CHARTER

OVERVIEW

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of DPI Holdings Berhad (“DPI” or “the Company”) recognises that good corporate governance practices and culture are the DPI Holdings Berhad keys to success, sustainability and survival in the ever changing social, economic and political eco-systems in the business environment locally and globally. The Board is, therefore, wholly committed to applying the principles necessary to ensure good corporate governance practices are implemented and maintained throughout the Company and its subsidiaries (“the Group”) in all its business dealings in respect of its shareholders and stakeholders. The Board supports the highest standards of corporate governance and the development of best practices for the Group set out in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 (“the Code”).

This Board Charter sets out the composition and balance, roles and responsibilities, operation and processes of the Board and is to ensure that all Board Members acting on behalf of the Company are aware of their duties and responsibilities as Board Members.

1. COMPOSITION AND BALANCE OF THE BOARD

1.1 Size and Composition

The Group is led by an effective and experienced Board comprising members who have varied experience in general business and financial aspects, as well as in the technical and operational aspects.

The present Board is headed by the Chairman, and comprises:-

- 2 Executive Directors;
- 1 Senior Independent Non-Executive Director; and
- 2 Independent Non-Executive Directors.

This composition complies with the ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad whereby the Company must have at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is higher, who are Independent Directors.

In the event of any vacancy in the Board resulting in the non-compliance with the above, the Company must fill the vacancy within three (3) months. The Board is of the opinion that the interests of shareholders of the Company are fairly represented by the current Board composition and its size constitutes an effective Board of the Company.

1.2 Board Balance

The Board’s composition represents members from diverse disciplines, tapping on their respective qualifications and experiences in business, commercial, finance and legal aspects. The Directors, with their wide spectrum of experience, skills and knowledge give added strength to the leadership which is necessary for the effective stewardship of the Group.

The presence of the three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors is essential in providing guidance, unbiased, fully balanced and independent views, advice and judgement to many aspects of the Group's strategy so as to safeguard the interests of minority shareholders and to ensure that high standards of conduct and integrity are maintained by the Group.

1.3 Nomination and Appointments

The members of the Board are appointed in a formal and transparent practice as endorsed by the Code. The Nomination Committee will make recommendations to the Board who will then go through the list of candidates identified and arrive at a decision on the appointment of the Director. The Company Secretary will then ensure that all appointments are properly made and that all legal and regulatory obligations are met.

All Board members shall notify the Chairman of the Board before accepting any new Directorship in other companies. The notification shall include an indication of time that will be spent on the new appointment. The Chairman shall also notify the Board if he has any new Directorship or significant commitments outside the Company.

1.4 Re-election

In accordance with the Company's Constitution, all Directors appointed by the Board are subject to re-election by the shareholders at the annual general meeting following their appointment. At least one-third (1/3) of the Directors are required to retire from office by rotation annually and shall be eligible for re-election at each annual general meeting.

1.5 Independence

The presence of Independent Non-Executive Directors ensures that views, consideration, judgment and discretion exercised by the Board in decision making remains objective and independent whilst assuring the interest of other parties such as minority shareholders are fully addressed and adequately protected as well as being accorded with due consideration.

1.6 Tenure of Independent Director

The tenure of an Independent Director shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. However, upon completion of the nine (9) years, the Independent Director may continue to serve the Board subject to the Director's re-designation as a Non-Independent Director. In the event the Director is to remain designated as an Independent Director, the Board shall first justify and obtain shareholders' approval on a year to year basis. If the Board continues to retain the Independent Director beyond nine (9) years, the Board should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tiers voting process as set out in the Code.

1.7 Evaluation of the Directors and the Board as a whole

The Board recognises the importance of assessing the effectiveness of individual Directors, the Board as a whole and its Committees. The Nomination Committee is given the task to review and evaluate the individual Director's performance and the effectiveness of the Board and the Board's Committees on an annual basis. In assessing suitability of candidates, considerations will be given to the competencies, commitment, contribution and performance.

The Nomination Committee is required to report annually to the Board an assessment of the Board's and its committees' performance. This will be discussed with the full Board. Every year, the Nomination Committee will evaluate each individual Director's contributions to the effectiveness of the Board and the relevant Board committees.

2. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Board Responsibilities

The Managing Director ("MD") and Executive Directors have the responsibility to manage the day-to-day operations of the business, implementation of Board policies and making strategic decisions for the expansion of the business. The Non-Executive Directors contribute their expertise and experiences to give independent judgment to the Board on issues of strategy, performance and resources, including major policies, key directions and standards of conduct.

No individual or group of individuals dominates the Board's decision-making. Together, the Directors possess the wide range of business, commercial and financial knowledge, expertise and skills essential in the management and direction of a corporation with regional presence.

The Board's principal duty is to act in the best interests of the Group and its shareholders and is ultimately responsible for the performance of the Group. In carrying out this pivotal role, the Board assumes the following specific responsibilities:

- Reviewing and adopting strategic plans for the Group;
- Overseeing the conduct of the Group's business to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed;
- Identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;
- Succession planning including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and, where appropriate, replacing senior management;
- Developing and implementing an investor relation programme or shareholder communication policy for the Company;

- Ensure that the operations of the Company are conducted prudently within the framework of laws and policies and takes into account sustainability factors; and
- Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's internal control systems and management information systems, including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines.

The Directors are required to declare their direct and indirect interests in the Company and related companies. The Directors are also responsible to declare whether they and/or any person(s) connected to them have any potential conflict of interest in any transaction and/or in any contract with the Company and/or any of its related companies. Any Director who has an interest in any related party transaction shall abstain from the Board's deliberation and voting and shall ensure that he or she and person(s) connected to him or her will abstain from voting on the related resolution.

2.2 ACCOUNTABILITY AND AUDIT

2.2.1 Financial Reporting

The Board has overall responsibility for the quality and completeness of the financial statements of the Company and the Group, both on a quarterly and full year basis, and has a duty to ensure that those financial statements are prepared based on appropriate and consistently applied accounting policies, supported by reasonably prudent judgment and estimates and in accordance with the applicable financial reporting standards.

The Audit and Risk Committee plays a crucial role in assisting the Board to scrutinise the information for disclosure to shareholders to ensure material accuracy, adequacy and timeliness.

2.2.1 Internal Control and Risk Management

The Board is responsible for maintaining a sound system of internal control to safeguard shareholders' investments and the Company's assets, and for reviewing the adequacy and integrity of the system. The system of internal control covers not only financial controls but operational and compliance controls and risk management.

Risk management is an integral part of the Group's business operations and it is subject to periodic reviews by the Board. The Group adopted a structured risk management framework with discussions involving different levels of management to identify and address risks faced by the Group.

Management is responsible for implementing the processes for identifying, evaluating, monitoring and reporting of risks and internal control, taking appropriate and timely corrective actions as needed, and for providing assurance to the Board that the processes have been carried out.

The Audit and Risk Committee has been entrusted by the Board to ensure effectiveness of the Group's internal control systems. The activities of the outsourced Internal Auditors are reported regularly to the Audit and Risk Committee which provides the Board with the required assurance in relation to adequacy and integrity of Group's system of internal controls.

The Board recognises that identification, evaluation and management of significant risks faced by the Company are an on-going process. The improvement of the system of internal controls is an on-going goal and the Board maintains on-going commitment to strengthen the Company's control environment and processes.

2.2.2 Relationship with the Auditors

The Group has established a transparent and appropriate relationship with both the outsourced Internal Auditors and the External Auditors. Such relationships allow the Group to seek professional advice on matters relating to compliance and corporate governance. The internal audit function of the Group is outsourced to a third party. Similar to the External Auditors, Internal Auditors too have direct reporting access to the Board and the Audit and Risk Committee to ensure that issues highlighted are addressed independently, objectively and impartially without any undue influence from Management.

The Company has put in place an Assessment Policy together with a formal annual performance evaluation of the Internal and External Auditors by the Audit and Risk Committee. The objective of the Internal and External Auditors Assessment Policy is to outline the guidelines and procedures for the Audit and Risk Committee to review, assess and monitor the performance, suitability, objectivity and independence of the Internal and External Auditors respectively.

2.3 Responsibilities of the Chairman, Managing Director and Deputy Managing Director, Independent Non-Executive Directors

The Board takes cognisance that the Chairman is also the Managing Director of the Company. However, the Board ensures that there is a clear division of responsibility between MD/ED and the Chairman in order to provide for balance of power and authority. The former leads the Management of the Company and has overall responsibility for the operating units and the implementation of the Board's policies and decisions, whilst the latter is responsible for the orderly conduct and effectiveness of the Board in addition to facilitate constructive deliberation of matters in hand.

The responsibilities of the Chairman, amongst others, are as follows:

- i. To provide leadership to the Board.
- ii. To oversee the effective discharge of the Board's supervisory role.
- iii. To facilitate the effective contributions of all Directors.
- iv. To conduct and chair Board Meetings and General Meetings of the Company.
- v. To manage Board communications and Board effectiveness and effective supervision over Management.

- vi. To ensure Board Meetings and General Meetings are in compliance with good conduct and best practices.
- vii. To promote constructive and respectful relations between Board members and between the Board and the Management.
- viii. To ensure that quality information to facilitate decision-making is delivered to the Board on timely manner.
- ix. To represent the Company and/or Group, together with the MD, to external groups such as shareholders, creditors, consumer groups, local communities and federal, state, and local governments.

The responsibilities of the Managing Director and Deputy Managing Director, amongst others, are as follows:

- i. To ensure the efficient and effective operation of the Group.
- ii. To manage the overall business and oversees the day-to-day management of the Group with all powers, discretions and delegations authorised, from time to time, by the Board.
- iii. To provide effective leadership to the entire workforce by establishing an honest and disciplined work culture that will result in productive output to deliver value to our shareholders as well as ensuring succession plans are in place through training and personal development of key staff in order that a healthy employer-employee relationship may be established towards a long term human capital development of the Group.
- iv. To develop and recommend to the Board strategic business direction, plans and policies of the Group that leads to the creation of shareholder value.
- v. To develop and recommend to the Board the operational plans and annual budget that support the Company or Group's long-term strategy.
- vi. To ensure continuous improvement in the quality and value of the products and services provided by the Group.
- vii. To ensure that the Company of the Group achieves and maintains a satisfactory competitive position within its industry.
- viii. To formulate and oversee the implementation of major corporate policies.
- ix. To report to the Board periodically on the financial positions of the Group which include forecast results, market conditions and other developments as required from time to time.
- x. To serve as the chief spokesperson for the Group.
- xi. To be responsible for the financial management of the Company and/or Group and overseeing the handling of financial matters which include keeping proper accounts for prudent and economical administration, avoidance of waste and extravagance for efficient and effective use of all the resources.

- xii. To bring material matters to the attention of the Board in an accurate and timely manner.

The Board has nominated a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director. She serves as a sounding board to our Executive Chairman; an intermediary for other directors when necessary; the point of contact of shareholders and other stake holders; and will lead the performance evaluation of our Executive Chairman to exercise objectivity in boardroom matters. The appointment and Board position are meant to diminish any concentration of powers vested in our Executive Chairman and Managing Director. Further, the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director who is also the Chairman of the Board Nomination Committee and a Member of the Board Remuneration Committee. This will ensure there are checks and balances in the areas of, amongst others, performance evaluation, executive remuneration, succession planning and appointment of new directors.

2.4 Board Committees

The Board may from time to time establish Committees as is considered appropriate to assist in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. The Board delegates certain functions to the following Committees to assist in the execution of its responsibilities:-

- i. Audit and Risk Committee
- ii. Nomination Committee
- iii. Remuneration Committee

The Committees shall operate under clearly defined terms of reference. The Committees are authorised by the Board to deal with and to deliberate on matters delegated to them within their terms of reference.

2.5 Company Secretary

The Board appoints the Company Secretary, who plays an important advisory role, and ensures that the Company Secretary fulfils the functions for which he/she has been appointed.

The Company Secretary is a central source of information and advice to the Board and its Committees on issues relating to compliance with laws, rules, procedures and regulations affecting the Company.

The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole. The Board recognises the fact that the Company Secretary should be suitably qualified and capable of carrying out the duties required.

All Board Members, particularly the Chairman, have unrestricted access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary for the purposes of the Board's affairs and the business.

3. BOARD PROCESSES

3.1 Board Meetings

The Board meets at least four (4) times a year, with additional meetings to be convened whenever necessary. The Directors receive notices of meetings, typically at least five (5) working days prior to the date of the meetings, setting out the agenda for the meetings, complete with a full set of Board papers. The Board papers provide sufficient details of matters to be deliberated during the meetings and the information provided therein is not confined to financial data but includes also non-financial information, both quantitative and qualitative, which are deemed critical for the Directors' knowledge and information in arriving at a sound and informed decision. Where necessary, senior management and/or external professionals may be invited to attend these meetings to clarify and/or explain matters being tabled.

In the event a potential conflict of interest situation arises, the Director concerned is required to declare his interest and shall abstain from any deliberation and participation in respect of such resolution pertaining to the transaction. Unless his presence is needed in the meeting to provide information, he would be requested to recuse himself from the meeting.

To facilitate the Directors' time planning, an annual meeting calendar is prepared and circulated in advance of each new year. The calendar provides Directors with the scheduled dates for meetings of the Board and Board Committees, the annual general meeting as well as the closed periods for dealings in securities by Directors based on the targeted dates of announcements of the Group's quarterly results. The Directors are expected to attend every meeting whenever possible.

The Company Secretary ensures that all Board and Board Committees meetings are properly convened, and those accurate and proper records of proceedings and minutes of meetings together with written resolution passed are duly recorded and properly maintained at the registered office of the Company. The Company Secretary also serves notice to Directors on the closed periods for trading in the Company's shares, in accordance with Chapter 14 of the Listing Requirements.

3.2 Directors' Training

The Directors are encouraged to attend relevant seminars and training programmes to equip themselves with the knowledge to effectively discharge their duties as Directors. In addition, individual directors are responsible for determining their continuous training needs to keep abreast of changes in both the regulatory and business environments as well as with new developments within the industry which the Group operates.

The Board will assess the training needs of the Directors and ensure Directors have access to continuing education programmes. The Board shall disclose in the Annual Report the training attended by the Directors.

3.3 Directors' Remuneration

The Board through Remuneration Committee establishes formal and transparent remuneration policies and procedures to attract and retain Directors. The Directors' remuneration is structured so as to link rewards to their corporate and individual performance. The Board recognises that levels of remuneration must be sufficient to attract, retain and motivate the Directors of the quality required to manage the business of the Company and to align the interest of the Directors with those of the shareholders.

The Board will determine the level of remuneration of Board Members, taking into consideration the recommendations of the Remuneration Committee for the Executive Board Members.

Non-executive Directors will be paid a basic fee as ordinary remuneration and will be paid a sum based on their responsibilities in committees and the Board, their attendance and/or special skills and expertise they bring to the Board. The fee shall be fixed in sum and not by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover.

3.4 Access to Information and Independent Advice

The Directors have unrestricted access to information from the Management, the Company Secretary, the outsourced Internal Auditors as well as the External Auditors of the Group in furtherance of their duties. If the need arises, they are free to obtain independent professional advice at the Company's expense.

3.5 Investor Relations and Shareholder Communication

The Board values the importance of the dissemination of information on major developments of the Group to the shareholders, potential investors and the general public in a timely and equitable manner. Quarterly results, announcements, annual reports and circulars serve as primary means of dissemination of information so that the shareholders are constantly kept abreast on the Group's progress and development. The Company's corporate website at www.dpiaerosol.com serves as one of the most convenient ways for shareholders and members of the public to gain access to corporate information, news and events relating to the Group.

The Board will ensure that the general meetings of the Company are conducted in an efficient manner and serve as a mode in shareholders communications. These include the supply of comprehensive and timely information to shareholders and the encouragement of active participation at the general meetings.

The Annual General Meeting ("AGM") remains as a principal forum used by the Group for communication with its shareholders. During the AGM, shareholders are accorded time and opportunity to query the Board on the resolutions being proposed and also matters relating to the performance, developments within and the future direction of the Group. Shareholders are also invited to convey and share their inputs with the Board. Where applicable, the Board will also ensure that each item of special business that is included in the notice of meeting is accompanied by a full written explanation of that resolution and its effects to facilitate its understanding and evaluation.

4. REVIEW OF THE BOARD CHARTER

The Board will review this Charter from time to time and at least once a year, to make it up-to-date and consistent with the Board's objectives and responsibilities as well as the governance model of Group.

Any updates to the Principles and practices set out in this Charter will be available on the Company website.

The Board charter has been reviewed and adopted by the Board on 22 September 2022.
